SUSTAINABLE ECO ALLIANCE

“OM SRI SURABHYAI NAMAHA! OM SRI GURAVE NAMAHA!”

MISSION & VISION

The ISKCON Daiva Varnasrama Ministry of India (IDVM-India) invites intentional communities (including individuals, families, villages, organization, groups from both private, public and governmental sectors and for the purpose of this document all referred to as “applicants”) who support the universal principles of food production through localized economy, who value the protection of our mother cow and our father bull, and who advocate a lifestyle based on traditional simple living and high thinking to become “Patron Members” of IDVM-India Sustainable Eco Alliance.

IDVM-India Sustainable Eco Alliance is a program conceived by IDVM-India in collaboration with the ISKCON Global Initiative called Vaisnava Sustainable Communities (VSC), for the purpose of promoting universal peace, prosperity and enlightenment through the establishment of intentional communities, the revival of traditional education and the promotion traditional village life centered on land, cows and devotion to Lord Krishna.

PRE-REQUISITES

The following pre-requisites are needed to become a registered Patron Member:
